

Sinclair's broadcasting of 'Stolen Honor' is clearly a partisan play and is an insult to our democracy. This should serve as evidence of why media anti-conglomeration rules need to be strengthened. Please force them to either not air 'Stolen Honor' or give the Kerry campaign equal air time in the near future. Thank you in advance for consideration and response. Sincerely,
-Michael Levy